George Gund III

CO-CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

When you look at the ownership level in the National Hockey League, you see very few people who play the same game that they operate. Maybe they played when they were kids, but not now. George Gund, who, with his brother Gordon, owns the Minnesota team, is an exception to the rule.

Gund, 48, played an active role on the ice through last season. What's more, the North Star team is not his only hockey property. Gund is an owner of Sun Valley, Idaho, Ice Skating, Inc., and takes a regular shift on defense for the Sun Valley Suns. Gund's interest in the playing end of the game is not new-found. He played hockey as a youngster in his home town of Cleveland and organized the first team at Western Reserve University. He also played for the Cleveland Falcons in that city's league and for city league teams in Seattle and San Francisco.

Gund entered the National Hockey League picture in 1975 when he became part owner of the California Seals. He was instrumental in the move of the California team to Cleveland in 1976 and in the purchase of the team by him and his brother in 1977. It was in June of 1978 when he helped to put together the unprecedented merger of the Minnesota and Cleveland teams and a little over a month later when the Gund brothers assumed 100 percent control of the North Stars.

He is a director of the Ameritrust Corporation and is a past Board Member of the Redwood Bank in San Francisco. Along with real estate interests in the Bay Area and Port Angeles, Wash., he has a cattle ranch in Lee, Nev. In addition, he is an importer and distributor of foreign films and chairman of the San Francisco International Film Festival. He was a founding shareholder and past chairman of the Board of the Rusty Scupper Restaurant chain.

Gund is a trustee of the George Gund Foundation, the San Francisco Art Institute and the University of Nevada Foundation in Reno, Nev. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame and a member of the International Council of the Museum of Modern Art in New York. He is on the collectors committee of the National Gallery in Washington, D.C. and is a member of the Ohio Film Bureau in Columbus, Ohio. He is a partner of Gunwyn Ventures, a venture capital company and Vice Chairman of Gund Investment Corporation. Gund and his wife, Theo, make their home in San Francisco. They are parents of two boys.

Gordon Gund

CO-CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Gordon Gund's interest in hockey sprang from his days as a boy at Groton School, was reinforced at Harvard University where he played defense for the Crimson, and continues today at the National Hockey League level. Gund, 45, joined his brother George in 1977 in ownership of the former Cleveland Barons. He played a key role in the summer of 1978, when the Gunds assumed control of the North Stars and Met Center.

The expertise shown in completion of the merger is typical of Gund's successful, wide-ranging career in business and public service. Gund's involvement in the business of sports and entertainment expanded in 1981, when he and his brother acquired complete ownership of the Cleveland Coliseum, and then again in 1983 when they acquired control of the NBA Cleveland Cavaliers. Gund is co-chief executive officer of the Cavaliers/Coliseum Management Corporation. Also in 1983, again with his brother, George, Gund acquired the ownership of Nationwide Advertising Service, Inc., a major recruitment advertising agency. Gund is co-chairman of NAS, which has 35 offices throughout the United States and Canada.

Gund is also co-founder and general partner of Gunwyn Ventures of Princeton, N.J., a corporate venture capital fund, and general partner of GUS Enterprises, San Francisco, a firm formed in 1969, which is involved in real estate development principally on the West Coast for its own account. Gund is a director of First Florida Banks, Inc., a Florida bank holding company headquartered in Tampa, Fla.

Gund has also taken a leading role in national charitable/philanthropic endeavors. In 1971, he co-founded the now international RP Foundation Fighting Blindness, headquartered in Baltimore, of which he is vice chairman and trustee. This foundation is dedicated to finding a treatment or cure for retinitis pigmentosa and allied degenerative diseases of the retina which impair the vision of many hundreds of thousands of children and adults, often leading to total blindness. This foundation now has 34 chapters in 28 states, and 18 international affiliates.

Gund is president and a trustee of the Gund Collection of Western Art, a traveling collection of 70 works of art, representing some of the most recognized American western artists including Remington, Russell, and Bierstadt. He is also president of the Board of Trustees of Groton School in Groton, Mass.

John F. Karr

PRESIDENT

John Karr entered hockey management in 1978 after a successful career in business, bringing to his position as president and chief operating officer of the Minnesota North Stars strong leadership based on a broad background in management, finance and marketing. He serves on the Club's Board of Directors and is an alternate governor of the NHL Board of Governors.

His responsibilities include management of the Met Center as well as the North Stars. The Met Center, Minnesota's best-designed and most successful sports and entertainment arena, is operated by a competent, experienced staff under his direction.

Karr, 56, entered the business world in 1953 after he was awarded his MBA at Indiana University. He served on management teams for the Burroughs Corp., The Trane Co., Arthur D. Little, Inc., Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and Cole National Corp. For Cole National, a Cleveland-based specialty retail company, he served in several capacities including vice president-planning, vice president-finance and administration, and a member of the board of directors. Karr moved into the National Hockey League during the 1977-78 season as president and chief operating officer of the Cleveland Barons. After completion of the history-making amalgamation of the Cleveland and Minnesota teams, Karr was chosen for the same position with the North Stars.

Karr spent his early days on Michigan's Upper Peninsula in the small town of Allouez. He later moved to Detroit and attended high school in that city. He served two years in the United States Army. Karr graduated in 1952 from Wayne State University. Karr and his wife, Mildred, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of four children, two boys and two girls.

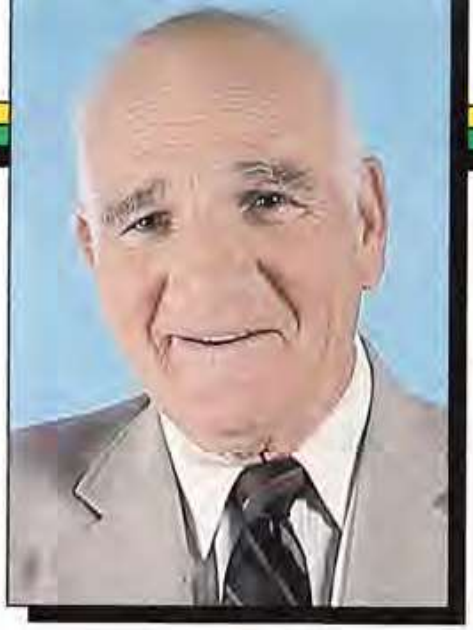
Lou Nanne

GENERAL MANAGER

The fact that Lou Nanne chairs the General Managers' Committee of the National Hockey League is one indication of the respect he has earned from his peers in the seven seasons he has been at the helm of the Minnesota North Stars. Nanne has been active at league level, but much more involved in the affairs of the North Stars. He took over a team in 1978 that was worst in the NHL and has made it one of the formidable clubs in the league. Make no mistake, the team is his creation. Not one player at this year's training camp was his teammate on the 1977-78 squad. They all arrived as the result of deals and drafts arranged by Nanne. He not only serves the North Stars as general manager, but also is vice president and one of Minnesota's alternate members of the NHL Board of Governors.

Nanne has been a North Star ever since he turned professional. He was the only performer to play with the North Stars in all of the first 11 years of the team's existence. Over those 11 seasons he played defense most of the time, but had a couple of highly-successful seasons at right wing.

A native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nanne played minor hockey with Phil Esposito, but chose to attend the University of Minnesota where he became the only defenseman to win the WCHA scoring title. A naturalized citizen, he captained the United States Olympic team in 1968. Since 1964 he has served as color commentator during television broadcasts of the Minnesota high school hockey tournament. He is the most-recognized hockey figure in the state. Nanne, 44, and his wife, Francine, live in Edina. They are the parents of a girl, twin boys, and a third boy.



John Mariucci

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

John Mariucci reached two pinnacles in his long and distinguished hockey career during 1985. He was honored by the decision to name the University of Minnesota's rink Mariucci Arena. Then on Sept. 12 he was inducted into the National Hockey League's Hall of Fame.

There are good and sufficient reasons for these honors and the others he has won during his lifetime. John Mariucci is the symbol of hockey in Minnesota. More than any other living person he stands for the game in this state. The 69-year-old native of northern Minnesota's Iron Range decided long ago to devote himself to promoting and upgrading American and college hockey. He's been at it for more than four decades, and was the guiding force behind the rise of high school and college hockey in the United States.

He played a major role in establishing the tremendously successful Minnesota high school hockey program and in leading the University of Minnesota hockey team to national prominence.

Mariucci went from his home town of Eveleth to the University of Minnesota where he starred in hockey. He was chosen as an All-American player in 1940, his senior year at Minnesota. He also played varsity football for the Golden Gophers.

After graduating from Minnesota, Mariucci joined the Chicago Black Hawks as a defenseman. At that time the NHL employed only a handful of Americans and even fewer college-bred players. By 1968, six Americans and five collegians played in the NHL.

Mariucci played five years of defense in the NHL — all with Chicago. In those five seasons he scored 45 points (11 goals and 34 assists) in 223 games. He appeared in the Stanley Cup playoffs twice for Chicago, in 1940-41 and 1945-46.

In 1952, Mariucci began the first of 14 seasons as head hockey coach at the University of Minnesota. It was there that he coached Herb Brooks and Lou Nanne, under whom he now serves as Assistant General Manager of the North Stars. He encouraged Glen Sonmor to go onto coaching and hired Sonmor to take over the freshman team at Minnesota while he led the U.S. Olympic team to a silver medal in the 1956 Winter Olympics at Cortina D'Ampezzo, Italy. Mariucci left the Unviersity in 1966 with a record of 215-148-18.

Mariucci joined the North Stars in 1967, serving the team in various positions, largely in the field of collegiate scouting, before Lou Nanne appointed him to his present job. He now handles many duties for the North Stars, including a scouting schedule in the United States, Canada and Europe.

He and his wife, Gretchen, live in Bloomington.

Lorne Henning

COACH

Lorne Henning, chosen last June to coach the Minnesota North Stars, is regarded as one of the keenest young minds in hockey.

The 33-year-old Henning, fresh from a year as head coach of the Springfield team in the American League that is shared by the North Stars and the New York Islanders, has been praised by his past and future employers.

"What we saw of his work at Springfield and earlier as an assistant coach with the Islanders convinced us that he is the ideal person to coach the North Stars," said North Stars General Manager Lou Nanne when he announced Henning's selection. "He is bright and inventive and able to relate to the player of this day and age."

Henning attracted equal praise from Islanders General Manager Bill Torrey and Coach Al Arbour.

Torrey:

"I want to congratulate Lorne. Obviously we are sorry to see him go, but we wish him well. I'm sure he'll do an outstanding job for the North Stars."

Arbour:

"I'm certainly pleased to see Lornie advance in the coaching field. He was my assistant for three years and played for me for a number of years. I came to know him as a dedicated, innovative person, one well-qualified to deal with today's players."

Henning coached Springfield to fourth place in the AHL's Southern Division last season despite a year that saw injuries to the two major-league clubs strip his roster time and time again.

The new Minnesota coach was involved in all four of the Islanders' Stanley Cups, the first as a player — he assisted on the Cup-winning goal in 1980 — the next three as an assistant coach.

Born in Melfort, Sask., Henning played junior hockey in Estevan, Sask., and New Westminster, B.C., before he was chosen by the Islanders in the second round of the 1972 draft. Except for a couple brief trips to the minors, his entire playing career was spent in the NHL with the Islanders.

In 543 regular-season games he scored 73 goals and 111 assists for 184 points while performing largely as a defensive and penalty-killing specialists.

Henning and his wife, Cathye, are the parents of two sons, Brett and Garrett.

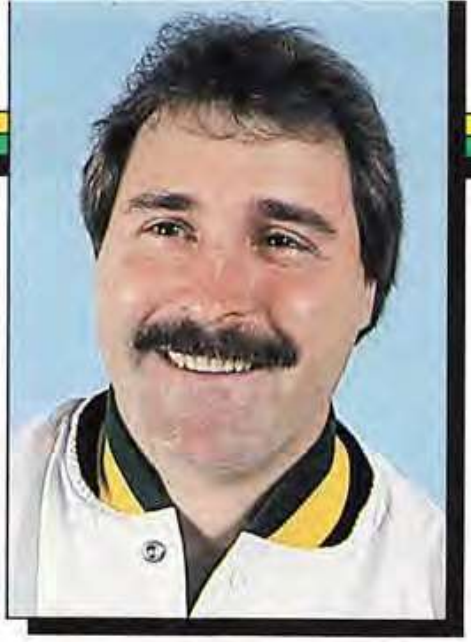
Also is tied for the Islander team record of five career shorthanded playoff goals . . .



Les Jackson

ASSISTANT COACH

The newest face on the North Stars' coaching staff belongs to Les Jackson. But he is far from a newcomer to Coach Lorne Henning. The two have been acquainted all of their adult lives.

Jackson, 32, played junior hockey with Henning for two seasons at Estevan, Sask., and New Westminister, B.C., of the Western League.

They took different paths at the conclusion of their junior careers. Jackson, drafted by Boston went on to play for Dayton, Ohio, of the International League and Roanoke, Va., of the Southern League before starting a decade as a hockey executive.

The native of the far northern Alberta town of Manning moved into management as a coach at Billings, Mont., and Tucson, Ariz., of the Southwest League. He became assistant coach for New Westminister, then coached Revelstoke of the British Columbia League. He coached the Great Falls, Mont., entry in the WHL. His last five years have been spent in Brandon, Man., where he served as assistant coach, coach and general manager for the WHL franchise.

Jackson is single. He makes his home in Bloomington.

J. P. Parise

ASSISTANT COACH

J. P. Parise has served five years as an assistant coach of the North Stars, a span interrupted by one season (1983-84) as head coach of the club's farm team in Salt Lake City. He is the sole returning member of last season's coaching staff.

He has been reunited with Lorne Henning, who was his teammate when the two played for the New York Islanders.

He spent 11 full seasons and parts of three others in the NHL. The 44-year-old from Smooth Rock Falls, Ont., played left wing eight straight seasons for the North Stars, then went to the Islanders and Cleveland before returning to Minnesota as part of the Cleveland merger in 1978. He was named Minnesota's most valuable player in 1969-70 and played for Team Canada in the historic first series against the Soviet Union.

Parise, who was captain of the North Stars during his last season as a player, is still among the team's all-time leaders with 242 assists. He scored 396 points and played 588 games.

Parise and his wife, Donna, live in Bloomington. They have two sons, Jordy and Zachary.

12 Keith Acton

Center

Height: 5-9 —
Weight: 172 lbs.
173 cm. — 78 kg.
Age: 27
(April 25, 1958)

Born: Stouffville, Ont.
Off-Season Home:
Stouffville, Ont.
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1984-85 — For the last few seasons Keith Acton has been in the 50 to 60-point vicinity. Last year was no exception. He finished with 20 goals and 58 points to finish third among the North Stars. His plus-2 record was second best among Minnesota's forwards. But his value to the team was found more in his defensive play. Acton was assigned to shadow almost every big scorer from Wayne Gretzky on down. His play in that role was so effective that any points he scored came as a bonus. His defensive work also resulted in his career high of 90 penalty minutes for the season.

His Game — Acton's game combines both offense and defense. He is a good goal-scorer and excellent with the puck. He is an aggressive player who is capable of going head-to-head against the top offensive centers in the league. His game is often likened to that of Boston's Kenny Linesman. Although there are similarities — hard work, mobility, tenacity — Acton's game is his own. His penalty totals, for instance, are far below those of Linesman. He is a penetrating offensive player. His defensive game is a model of diligence. His total game is a reflection of the work ethic.

Career — Instant success was not the path for Acton. As a draft choice he was far down the list (103rd) when Montreal chose him in 1978. He went back to his junior team in Peterborough, Ont., for the 1978-79 season and then spent two years in Montreal's AHL outpost in Halifax, Nova Scotia, preparing for his NHL debut. When he did join the Canadiens, he was ready and spent three solid seasons in their lineup before his departure for Minnesota.

Notes — Enjoys golf, swimming and reading . . . Played for NHL coaches Roger Neilson and Gary Green when he was a junior at Peterborough . . . Married, his wife's name is Susan . . . Nickname is Woody . . . Works at a car dealership in Stouffville during the off-season . . . His idol is Montreal's Bob Gainey . . . Played center field for the North Stars in the Molson NHL slo-pitch tournament in Niagara Falls last summer and led the team in hits. For this he collected a purse of $65.

Obtained — Obtained from Montreal Oct. 28, 1983 along with Mark Napier and Montreal's third choice in the 1984 Entry Draft for Bobby Smith.

Don Beaupre

Goaltender

Height: 5-8 —
Weight: 162 lbs.
170 cm. — 73 kg.
Age: 24
(Sept. 10, 1961)

Born: Kitchener, Ont.
Off-Season Home:
Burnsville, Minn.
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1984-85 — Don Beaupre became the North Stars' starting goalie midway through last spring's playoffs vs. Chicago. His performance in that role inspired enough confidence in him so that Minnesota felt free to trade veteran Gilles Meloche. Beaupre's showing against Chicago in the Norris Division final climaxed a season that was up and down, not only for him but for all three of Minnesota's goaltenders. There were stretches when he played brilliantly, but the three-goalkeeper system employed by the North Stars last season seemed to inhibit anyone's chances for a long period of success in the nets. Beaupre did, however, achieve a milestone when he recorded his first regular-season shutout, a 4-0 blanking of Winnipeg on Dec. 26, 1984.

His Game — Beaupre depends on speed of hand and foot for his success in goal. Given his size, he has to move quickly to stop the kinds of shots he faces in the NHL. He has an especially fast glove hand and is adept at going down at the right time and getting up soon enough to frustrate his foes. He also is a combative performer, defending his crease with uncommon ferocity.

Career — Beaupre arrived in the NHL to rave notices. He started in the NHL All Star game at the age of 19 and finished third in voting for rookie of the year. His play fell off the next season and there was speculation that he was a one-season wonder. However, his showing the next four seasons has proved that he has earned his place among the league's goalies.

Notes — Nickname is Bobo . . . Played junior hockey in Sudbury, Ont. . . . Played shortstop for the North Stars in the Molson NHL slo-pitch tournament last summer in Niagara Falls . . . Likes to watch pro wrestling . . . Was the winning goalie in Minnesota's only Stanley Cup finals victory . . . Enjoys golf . . . Beaupre was married last June. His wife's name is Kim. His name appears to be French, but he is German by descent.

Obtained — Minnesota's second choice (37th overall) in 1980 Entry Draft.

1984-85 — It's a measure of Brian Bellows' ability that he finished atop the North Stars' scoring last season despite what was by his standards a less than satisfactory season. Twenty six goals and 36 assists would be decent figures for most players in the league. For Bellows the 62-point total was his lowest in three seasons in the NHL. Among his 26 goals were five first goals, most scored by any of the Minnesota players.

His Game — Bellows is not a finesse player, but a grinder and a good all-round player. He is an intense competitor who is 100 percent into the game all the time. He has been one of the North Stars' most consistent players during much of his three-year career in the National League.

Career — Bellows' final year of junior, which culminated in the Memorial Cup title for his Kitchener, Ont., team, saw him play under the blinding glare of media attention from start to finish. He was the only entrant in what was called the Bellows Sweepstakes, the duel among NHL teams to gain the No. 1 overall draft choice and his services. Bellows still attracts much attention around the league.

Notes — Bellows is single . . . His father is foreman at a GM plant in St. Catharines, Ont. . . . Played for former Chicago Coach Orv Tessier at Kitchener in 1980-81 when he captained his team to the Memorial Cup title . . . Served as the North Stars' captain in 1983-84 when an injury forced Craig Hartsburg to undergo an operation . . . Attended The College of St. Thomas the last two summers . . . Enjoys windsurfing . . . Taught in a hockey school in Anchorage, Alaska, during the off-season . . . Was a junior teammate at Kitchener with the Caps' Scott Stevens.

Obtained — Minnesota's first choice (second overall) in 1982 Entry Draft.

17 Bo Berglund

Right Wing/Left Wing

Height: 5-10 —
Weight: 175 lbs.

Age: 30
(April 6, 1955)

Born:
Sjalevad, Sweden
Off-Season Home:
Stockholm, Sweden
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1984-85 — Bo Berglund was injured when he and Tony McKegney were acquired by the North Stars from Quebec last December and it took some time for him to heal and then to make his presence known in the Minnesota lineup. He didn't play a regular shift, but when he did get the opportunity to play he demonstrated his desire and aggressive nature.

His Game — Although he's not big physically, he is not afraid to take the body and he likes to work along the boards and in the corners. His speed and agility combine to make him a threat as a forechecker. Like most of his countrymen, he's an accurate and unselfish passer.

Career — Berglund was one of the league's older rookies two years ago at Quebec when he broke into the NHL at the age of 28. He made a good impression with the Nordiques, scoring 16 goals in the regular season and adding two in the playoffs. Before crossing the Atlantic, he played for Djurgardens in Sweden's Elite Division, the top league in that country. He also won a bronze medal as a member of the 1980 Swedish Olympic Team.

Notes — Played for Djurgardens against the North Stars in 1981 when Minnesota visited Sweden for the Dagens Nyheter tournament . . . His English, like that of most Swedes, is excellent . . . Bo and his wife, Ulla, are the parents of a girl and a boy . . . Was taken by the Nordiques in the 12th round of the 1983 Entry Draft.

Obtained — Obtained from Quebec along with Tony McKegney Dec. 14, 1984 for Brad Maxwell and Brent Ashton.

1984-85 — Most folks felt that Scott Bjugstad would spend most of his first season as a professional in the higher reaches of hockey's minor leagues. But the young man from the Twin Cities' northern suburbs surprised all of them. He spent most of last season in the green and gold North Stars' uniform. Bjugstad's role was largely that of a defensive specialist. But he did record 11 goals in the playing time he logged in 72 games.

His Game — Bjugstad was a scoring threat wherever and whenever he played — at Irondale High School, at the University of Minnesota and for the United States Olympic team. He submerged that portion of his game last year when he was learning the ropes in his first NHL season. But the offensive end of his game is bound to surface in the long run. He has a hard and accurate shot and gets it off quickly.

Career — An outstanding high school player at Irondale — all-conference and all state as a senior, Bjugstad achieved more stardom at the University of Minnesota. He won the Western College Hockey Association scoring championship and was named to the WCHA all-star team in his senior year. He was a member of the 1984 Olympic Team and a finalist in voting for the Hobey Baker Award for college hockey's most valuable player.

Notes — Named as a high school All-American in soccer . . . Enjoys hunting and fishing . . . Majored in business at the UM . . . Played in three National Sports Festivals . . . Was an alternate captain his senior year at Minnesota . . . Suffered a broken nose in his very first NHL game.

Obtained — Minnesota's 13th choice (181st overall) in the 1981 Entry Draft.

Born: Roseau, Minn.

1984-85 — For many National Hockey League players a 56-point season would be most creditable. But for Neal Broten it was an off year, his lowest as a professional in terms of points. Part of the problem was the injury blight that afflicted the North Stars. That meant that Broten was playing with different wingers nearly every time the puck was faced off to start a game. He was the only player on the squad to go through the season unscathed, performing in all 80 regular-season contests and in every playoff game.

His Game — Broten is one of the premier puck handlers in the league, with excellent eye-hand coordination. Time after time he puts his wingers in for excellent scoring chances. It's no coincidence that Dino Ciccarelli's all-time single-season record of 55 goals was set when he spent most of his time playing on Broten's line. Broten also is a skilled performer on the North Stars' speciality teams, often manning the point on the power play and killing penalties with considerable skill.

Career — Name an honor and its more than likely that Broten has won it. He was a star for Roseau High School in two Minnesota State tournaments. He was a gold-medal winner in the 1980 Winter Olympics, an All-American at the University of Minnesota and recipient of college hockey's highest award, the Hobey Baker Award, in 1981. He was a Stanley Cup finalist with the North Stars in 1981, a performer for the Campbell Conference in the 1983 NHL All-Star Game, winner of the 1982-83 Emery Edge Trophy awarded to the top plus/minus player on the team and winner of the North Stars' MVP award in 1983-84.

Notes — Neal's brother, Aaron, a teammate at Roseau and the UM, plays for the New Jersey Devils . . . A second brother, Paul, played in the state tournament with Roseau and has followed his brothers to the University of Minnesota . . . Scored a goal in his first NHL game . . . Neal and his wife Sally have two daughters, Brooke and Lara . . . Sally grew up on a hobby farm a few miles from Roseau. She started showing horses when she was eight and rode in barrel races a few years later. When Neal joined the Olympic team in 1980, Sally left Roseau to ride in rodeo in Colorado.

Obtained — Minnesota's third choice (42nd overall) in the 1979 Entry Draft.

1984-85 — Jon Casey has been a winner wherever he has played — high school, college and professional. Last season was no exception. Casey recorded a splendid season in his first full year as a professional performing for Baltimore's American League team. He led the AHL in goals-against average (2.63) and in victories (30), was named to the league's all-star team and was chosen as the league's Rookie of the Year. Casey's goalkeeping — eight wins, three losses, a 3.31 average — led his team to the Calder Cup playoff finals.

His Game — He does not have the bulk to cover a vast area of the net, so Casey depends on fast reactions and a finely-honed knowledge of the angles to halt the opposing shooters. You might think he is beaten on a shot, but his speed and ability to recover from a perilous situation often beats the odds.

Career — Casey went from stardom at Grand Rapids High School to stardom at North Dakota University to stardom at Baltimore while scarcely missing a beat. He was an all-WCHA first team goalie as a sophomore — and again as a senior — and was chosen as the all-conference second-team goalkeeper as a junior. Over four seasons in college he managed a save percentage of 91.2 percent and a goals-against average of 2.89.

Notes — Played for Grand Rapids in the Minnesota State High School tournament . . . Had six shutouts in his career at North Dakota . . . Recorded four shutouts last season at Baltimore . . . Had a 25-10-2 record in college . . . Casey is not married.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent April 1, 1984.

Dino Ciccarelli

Right Wing

Height: 5-10 — 175 cm.

Age: 25 (Feb. 8, 1960)

Born: Sarnia, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Eden Prairie, Minn.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

1984-85 — For the first time in his five seasons as a professional, the injury blight struck Dino Ciccarelli. He missed two games with a scratched cornea. Then he sat out 10 contests with torn ligaments in his right shoulder. He came back to play one game. In the very next outing he was slashed across the glove by Edmonton's Lee Fogolin. The result? A broken wrist and 13 more games on the sideline. These injuries all took place in the first half of the season, but Ciccarelli never regained the form of his earlier years and finished with 15 goals and 17 assists, a mere drop in the bucket for him when he is at the top of his form.

His Game — When Dino is on top of his game, he is in constant motion. He won't stand still for even a moment near his opponents' net. He darts in and out of the crease, is in front of the cage at one moment, in back of it the next. That frees him to receive the passes, gobble up the rebounds and score the goals. It often goes unnoticed, but his defensive game displays the same kind of effort.

Career — His NHL career has been played in a blaze of glory for the most part. Dino has been chosen to play in two All-Star Games. He holds the team record for goals in one season with 55. He set an NHL record by scoring 14 goals as a rookie in the 1981 Stanley Cup playoffs. All of this might not have taken place had General Manager Lou Nanne not signed him as a free agent after a fractured femur nearly wrote an end to his career while he played junior hockey in 1978.

Notes — He skated with a metal rod in his leg for one season and kept it as a souvenir . . . Has two brothers and a sister . . . His father is a welder . . . One of the most-popular North Stars . . . Dino and his wife Lynda have one daughter, Jenna . . . He grew up on the same Sarnia street as teammate Tony McKegney . . . Has played for the North Stars in the Molson NHL slo-pitch tournament the last three summers.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent, September 28, 1979.

170 cm. — 81 kg.
Age: 27
(Nov. 30, 1958)

Born: Pas, Man.
Off-Season Home: Edina, Minn.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

1984-85 — There's a school of thought that Curt Giles had his very best season in professional hockey last year. Playing for a Minnesota team that had its share of problems, he was a rock of stability on defense. His teammates voted him the Masterton Trophy as the club's most valuable player. Writers and broadcasters chose him as the team's most valuable defenseman. His plus-minus figure of plus-3 won the team's Emery Edge Award. He missed only three games and recorded 30 points, his most ever in a six-year NHL career.

His Game — Body checks are what most people notice about Giles — especially opposing forwards. He has the Leo Boivin-style hip check, which is a lost art in today's game, and he uses it with deadly effectiveness. Giles is a defensive-minded player and a very consistent player. In the words of former Coach Glen Sonmor, "he is an every-nighter."

Career — Giles played only a half year in the minors after graduation from Minnesota-Duluth. His college career was splendid. He won All-American honors twice at UMD where he enrolled as a 16-year-old freshman.

Notes — Was named the North Stars' most valuable player by his teammates in 1980-81 and again last season . . . Curt and his wife, Mary Pat, have a son and a daughter, Michael and Ashley . . . Is one of the team's alternate captains and one of the most popular players amongst his teammates . . . Has a degree in secondary education from UMD . . . Enjoys golf . . . Nickname is Pengy, short for Penguin and a reference to his stature.

Obtained — Minnesota's fourth choice (54th overall) in 1978 Entry Draft.

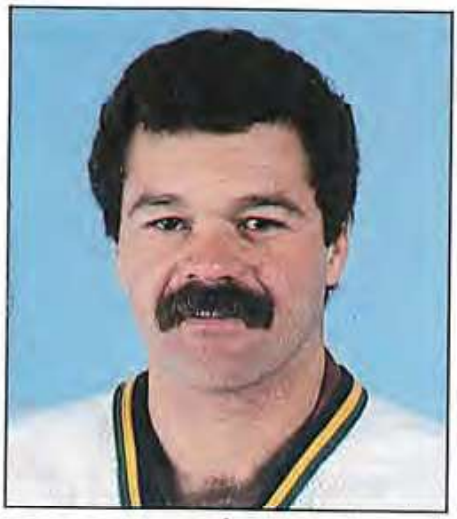
21 Dirk Graham

Right Wing/Left Wing



Height: 5-11 — 180 cm.
Weight: 190 lbs. — 86 kg.
Age: 26 (July 29, 1959)

Born: Regina, Sask.
Off-Season Home: Regina, Sask.

1984-85 — During the second half of last season Dirk Graham found himself as a National Hockey League player and in doing so earned a regular position in the Minnesota lineup. Graham had been up and down during his two seasons as a Minnesotan, but in mid-February he came up to stay. At that point he had scored one goal in 12 NHL games. He scored 11 more in his next 23 contests, including a streak of six straight goalscoring games, one short of the team record held by Neal Broten.

His Game — Graham plays either wing with equal ability. That's a quality that endears him to the Minnesota coaching staff. He's a hard working individual who comes to play every night. His record reveals that he has been able to score at whatever level he has played. He also is able to take care of himself in heavy traffic.

Career — A 1979 draft selection by Vancouver, Graham has had to work himself up from the lower reaches of hockey's professional ranks. He advanced from the International League — where he scored 70 goals for Toledo in 1982-83 — to the Central League, then to the American League before breaking into the NHL. Instant success did not greet him, but the process of learning his trade in the minors has stood him in good stead.

Notes — Graham played junior hockey for Regina, Sask., in the Western League, scoring 48 and 49 goals in his last two seasons . . . He was 89th choice overall in the 1979 draft . . . Graham is single . . . Made the all star teams in both the International (1982-83) and Central (1983-84) Leagues . . . One of his junior coaches was present Edmonton scout Lorne Davis.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent May 17, 1983.

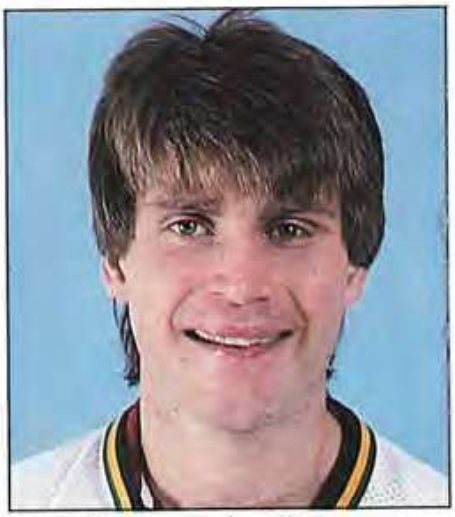
Mats Hallin

Right Wing



Height: 6-2 — 185 cm.
Weight: 202 lbs. — 91 kg.
Age: 27 (March 19, 1958)

Born: Eskiltuna, Sweden
Off-Season Home: Nykvirn, Sweden

1984-85 — Mats Hallin saw limited duty with the Islanders last season, scoring five goals in 38 games. The lack of playing time was the result of a shoulder injury and consequent surgery that kept him out of the lineup after mid-January. Though his number of shots was limited (22), he had the best goal scoring percentage (22.7) on the club. He also amassed 50 penalty minutes, a large amount considering his playing time.

His Game — A tough and determined player in front of the goal, Hallin is larger and a more physical player than most European performers. He plays both wings, but feels more at ease on the left side. Minnesota Coach Lorne Henning, a former Islander player and assistant coach is familiar with Hallin's abilities.

Career — A prodigy as a youngster in Sweden — he played Second Division hockey at 15 and for Sodertalje in the Elite Division at the age of 17 — Hallin was drafted by Washington and by Edmonton of the WHA in 1978. He did not sign with either team, but chose to go with the Islanders as a free agent in 1981. After a season and a half of outstanding play for Indianapolis of the CHL, he was brought up to stay with the Islanders.

Notes — Hallin is married. He and his wife, Helene, are the parents of a son, Per and a daughter, Johanna . . . Spends his off seasons in Sweden, just north of Stockholm . . . Gained his first notice in the United States when he scored 10 points for Sweden in the 1978 World Junior tournament . . . Made the 1982-83 CHL All-Star team . . . Is trained as a carpenter.

Obtained — From the Islanders Sept. 9, 1985 for future considerations.

4 Craig Hartsburg

Defense

Height: 6-1 —
Weight: 195 lbs.
183 cm. — 89 kg.
Age: 26
(June 29, 1959)

Born: Stratford, Ont.
Off-Season Home:
Eden Prairie, Minn.
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1984-85 — For the second season in succession the North Stars missed the presence of their captain for most of the year. Hartsburg was injured in a pre-season game, but the nature of the ailment was not determined until December when it was learned that he had suffered a stress fracture in the upper part of his femur. He made a cameo comeback in January, but returned to the injury list with the same injury after three games. He came back late in the season. There is no question that his presence in the lineup and in the dressing room played a large role in Minnesota's success in the playoffs.

His Game — A strong skater, Hartsburg is the prototype of a splendid offensive defensman. An excellent puck handler, he can control a game by slowing down the play and setting things in motion. Hartsburg's shot is effective from the point, but he is equally dangerous from short range.

Career — His professional career started early. When he was 18 years old he left junior hockey to join Birmingham of the World Hockey Association. The amalgamation of the WHA with the National League made him available in the Entry Draft of that season. Minnesota selected him in the first round. Since then he has played in three All-Star Games, in two World Championships and in one Stanley Cup final. During the last two seasons injuries have held his total of regular-season contests to 58.

Notes — Craig and his wife, Peggy, have two children, Christopher and Katie . . . He is the 11th captain in the history of the North Stars . . . Holds team records for assists (60) and points (77) in one season by a defenseman . . . Enjoys fishing trips during the summer.

Obtained — Minnesota's first choice (sixth overall) in 1979 Entry Draft.

Born:
Minneapolis, Minn.

1984-85 — Tom Hirsch was one of many North Stars whose 1984-85 season was blighted by injuries. The youngster from Minneapolis incurred a separated shoulder during a pre-season contest. He never really returned to top-flight physical condition despite several attempts to play. Finally, surgery was recommended and performed in mid-March. Hirsch spend most of his off-season days working with the team's physical therapists in an effort to prepare for this season.

His Game — Hirsch used two years of college, one year with the Olympians and parts of two professional seasons to become a more versatile defenseman. Where he once was considered strictly an offense-oriented defenseman, he now elicits praise for his play in all areas of the position.

Career — He was a varsity regular at the University of Minnesota during both his freshman and sophomore years. He was named the UM's rookie of the year in 1981-82 and helped his team reach the NCAA Final Four in 1982-83. He was named to the 1984 Olympic team and finished second in scoring among the team's defensemen.

Notes — Made All-City his first three years at Patrick Henry High School in Minneapolis and was an all-state player as a senior . . . Received WCHA honorable mention each of two seasons with the University of Minnesota . . . Played for the United States 1982 National team in Helsinki, Finland . . . Majored in psychology at Minnesota . . . Participated in two National Sports Festivals . . . Played for the United States in the 1984 Canada Cup competition . . . Enjoys tennis . . . Was good enough as a high school football player to attract major-college scholarship offers but opted for hockey . . . Hirsch is single.

Obtained — Minnesota's fourth choice (33rd overall) in 1981 Entry Draft.

1984-85 — Brian Lawton spent a large portion of last season playing for Springfield of the American League under the tutelage of Lorne Henning, the man who became the North Stars coach last June. The experience of playing under Henning and of learning his trade in the minors should prove valuable for the young man from Rhode Island. He was a streaky player last year, both for the North Stars and the Indians. The ability he shows when he's on his game has convinced observers that there's a place in the NHL for him. One of the bright sides of 1984-85 was that he played a relatively-injury free season, unlike his first year as a professional.

His Game — He is a tough, determined checker, who forechecks very well and takes the body without taking himself out of position. He is mentally and physically tough and has a tremendous desire to succeed. Lawton is a talented playmaker who seems to enjoy setting up his linemates even more than scoring a goal himself. His passing skills are first rate.

Career — Lawton was chosen Rhode Island high school athlete of the year by USA Today to cap a marvelous career as a schoolboy athlete. He led that state in scoring for two straight years while performing on one of New England's strongest squads. His abilities were such that he was selected to play for the United States in the world junior and world B tourneys. The North Stars then made him the first overall selection in the NHL amateur draft.

Notes — He is neither the first nor the last player chosen from Mount St. Charles High School by the North Stars. Winger Paul Guay (later traded to Philadelphia) was picked by Minnesota in the sixth round in 1981. Teammate Tom McComb, a defenseman, was chosen, also in the sixth round, in June of 1983 . . . Lawton is single . . . Mount St. Charles won four straight state titles and posted a 121-3-2 record in Lawton's four years there . . . He has three brothers . . . His father, Richard, is a pressman at a Providence newspaper . . . He set a North Stars team record for rookies by scoring twice in 19 seconds against Chicago on Nov. 5, 1983.

Obtained — Minnesota's first choice (first overall) in 1983 Entry Draft.

32 Dan Mandich

Defense

Height: 6-3 — 190 cm.
Weight: 210 lbs. — 95 kg.
Age: 25 (June 12, 1960)

Born: Brantford, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Bloomington, Minn.

1984-85 — The North Stars have been victimized by a plague of injuries over the last couple seasons, one of the most serious to defenseman Dan Mandich. Mandich suffered a knee injury January 16, 1984 in a game against Los Angeles and then contracted a staph infection that sapped his strength and left him in such a weakened condition that he was out of the lineup the rest of the season. He didn't make it back into uniform until very late in the 1984-85 season. The North Stars clearly missed his work as one of the club's hardest hitters and fiercest competitors.

His Game — Mandich is muscular, but that is far from the sum of his talents. He's strong on his skates and has a good shot. Still, he's most effective in front of his net where he clears out the opposition with maximum intensity. Experience is his greatest need. He played 67 games his rookie year, but was deprived of the chance to add substantially to that total the last two seasons.

Career — He played hockey at the lower age levels with a young man who has achieved a measure of fame. That's Wayne Gretzky, who also grew up in Mandich's home town of Brantford, Ont. The two went in different directions in later years, Gretzky to become hockey's teenaged wonder, Mandich to Ohio State and college. He was ignored in the draft, but was noticed by a pal of then-coach Glen Sonmor. That led to his signature on a Minnesota contract in 1982.

Notes — Mandich is married. His wife, Caroline, has a degree in history from the University of Western Ontario and is a certified fitness instructor . . . Another of his teammates at Brantford was Greg Stefan, the Red Wings goaltender. Mandich was a member of Stefan's wedding party last summer . . . Enjoys scuba diving.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent, July 1, 1982.

16 Terry Martin

Left Wing

Height: 5-11 —
Weight: 175 lbs.
180 cm. — 78.8 kg.
Age: 29
(Oct. 25, 1955)

Born: Barrie, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Mississauga, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

1984-85 — A shoulder separation suffered while he was performing for Nova Scotia kept Terry Martin off the ice most of the season after he was acquired by the North Stars from Edmonton. Martin played four games for the Oilers and 28 for Nova Scotia before the injury, then spent the better part of three months recovering. He didn't take the ice for Minnesota until mid-March.

His Game — Martin's strength is in his defensive play. He has a couple of 20-plus goal scoring seasons in the NHL on his record, but most of his pay checks are earned by diligent checking.

Career — He started his NHL career with Buffalo and spent time in the Quebec, Toronto and Edmonton organizations before arriving in Minnesota. His longest and most-productive stay was in Toronto where he played four seasons and managed back-to-back 23-goal and 25-goal seasons in 1980-81 and 1981-82.

Notes — Played junior hockey in London, Ont., and was Buffalo's third-round choice in the 1975 draft . . . Married, his wife's name is Nancy. They are the parents of a daughter, Tracy . . . Owns and operates a hockey school in his home town of Barrie, Ont . . . Was selected by Quebec in the 1979 Expansion Draft.

Obtained — With Gord Sherven from Edmonton in exchange for Mark Napier on Jan. 23, 1985.

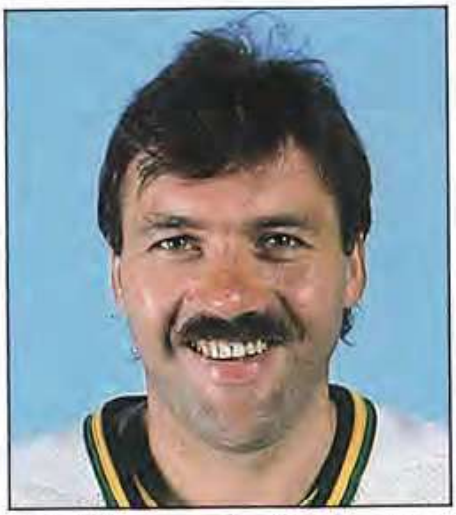
Dennis Maruk

Center



Height: 5-8 —
Weight: 174 lbs.
170 cm. — 79 kg.
Age: 29
(Nov. 17, 1955)

Born: Toronto, Ont.
Off-Season Home:
Eden Prairie, Minn.
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1984-85 — Dennis Maruk matched his regular-season scoring output of the 1983-84 season, but where he shone during last year's play was in the playoffs. It was in post-season play against St. Louis and Chicago that Maruk recorded 11 points, his best playoff total as a National Leaguer. Among the four goals in that total was the sudden-death winner that climaxed a stunning Minnesota comeback in Game Six versus Chicago. Like most North Stars last season, he was bitten by the injury bug, losing eight games in mid-season because of strained knee ligaments.

His Game — At barely 5-foot-8, Maruk gives up almost half a foot to his average peer. But those who collide with him in the corners more often than not discover him to be small only in height. He is exceptionally powerful in the upper body and has the quickness, the aggressiveness and the touch needed to propel the puck across the goal line.

Career — Maruk was drafted in the second round in 1975 by the California Golden Seals. He moved with the Seals from Oakland to Cleveland and eventually to Minnesota after the 1977-78 season when the Barons merged with Minnesota. Maruk went to training camp with the North Stars, but a week into the season he was swapped to the Capitals. In 1981-82 he became the fifth player in league history to score 60 or more goals.

Notes — Maruk played three years of junior hockey with London of the OHL and averaged 123 points a season during that span . . . Named the OHL's MVP in 1974-75 after scoring 145 points in 65 games for London . . . Nickname is PeeWee . . . Dennis and his wife, Joni, have two children, Jonathan and Sarah . . . He attended Normandale Community College last summer . . . Joni has a bachelor of Science degree in nursing.

Obtained — From Washington on July 5, 1983 for Minnesota's second-round draft choice in 1984.

1984-85 — Tom McCarthy appeared enroute to a decent National Hockey League season in 1984-85. But Feb. 14 at Joe Louis Arena a punch by the Wings' Tiger Williams caused a concussion and ended McCarthy's season. He didn't play again in the last 24 regular-season games and appeared sporadically in the playoffs.

His Game — McCarthy combines finesse with strength, a combination that works well around the net. He has the talent for playmaking and scoring. Through much of the last four seasons he has been teamed with Dino Ciccarelli and Neal Broten on Minnesota's most-explosive line.

Career — His goal total for six seasons is remarkable considering the number of times injuries have forced him from the lineup. He has missed 122 of a potential 480 games in those six years.

Notes — He and his family operate a popular fish and chips restaurant called McCarthy's, Just for the Halibut located at 514 East 60th Street (at Portland) . . . Played junior hockey in Oshawa, Ont. . . . His nickname is Juggie . . . McCarthy is not married . . . Played in the 1983 All-Star game . . . Recorded his third North Star hat trick last season.

Obtained — Minnesota's second choice (10th overall) in 1979 Entry Draft.

25 Tony McKegney

Left Wing

Height: 6-1 —
Weight: 198 lbs.
185 cm. — 89.1 kg.
Age: 27
(Feb. 15, 1958)

Born:
Montreal, Quebec
Off-Season Home:
Williamsville, N.Y.
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1984-85 — Tony McKegney looked as if he was enroute to one of those every-other seasons when he scores more than 30 goals. But a body check suffered Feb. 9 in St. Louis separated his shoulder, knocked him out for the season and off the Campbell Conference All-Star Team. Until the mishap he had led the North Stars on offense following the December trade that brought him and Bo Berglund to Minnesota. At the time of the injury he led the team in goals and had the best plus-minus record on the squad. Surgery repaired the separation and hard work in rehabilitation brought him back in time for the playoffs.

His Game — Speed and toughness are McKegney's stock in trade in the NHL. He not only has exceptional turn of speed on end-to-end rushes, but also is very quick off the mark. He also has been, before his latest injury, a durable performer, one who had missed only 14 games over the last five years.

Career — Except for 24 games at the outset of his career, McKegney has spent all of his time as a professional in the NHL. A 1978 second-round draft choice by Buffalo, he played five years for the Sabres before he was dealt to Quebec in 1983. He has alternated 30-goal years with 20-goal years, reaching a peak of 36 tallies for Buffalo in 1982-83.

Notes — Grew up on the same street in Sarnia, Ont., as Dino Ciccarelli . . . Can play all three forward positions . . . Played junior hockey in Kingston, Ont. . . . Won the Nordiques' award as best-conditioned player in 1983-84 . . . One of the North Stars' most-accomplished speakers . . . Played for the North Stars in the Molson NHL slo-pitch tournament last summer in Niagara Falls . . . His wife's name is Sue.

Obtained — From Quebec Dec. 14, 1984 along with Bo Berglund for Brad Maxwell and Brent Ashton.

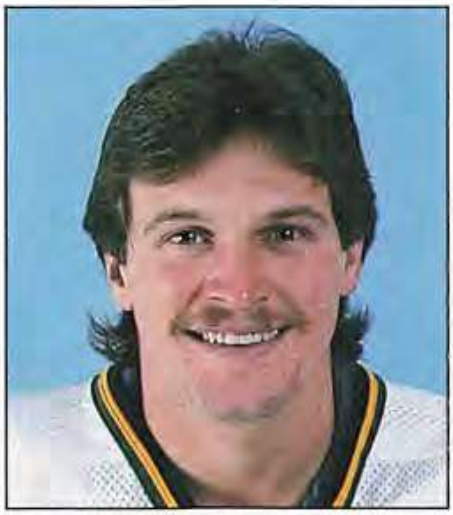
Rollie Melanson

Goaltender



Height: 5-10 — 178 lbs.
175 cm. — 80 kg.
Age: 25
(June 28, 1960)

Born: Moncton, N.B.
Off-Season Home: Moncton, N.B.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

1984-85 — Rollie Melanson went from a team with a three-goalie system (the Islanders) to a team with a three-goalie system (the North Stars). The difficulties inherent in those situations made last season the most troublesome of his four-plus in the NHL. He never was able to get into the rhythm of his game and, despite flashes of excellence, struggled through much of the four and a half months of the season he spent at Minnesota.

His Game — A standup goalkeeper, Melanson guards the angles with skill and confidence. The largest plus in his makeup is his competitive nature. Very agile, he tends to play the roaming game.

Career — Three 20-game winning seasons in five years — including an 11-game appearance in 1980-81 — is not perfect, but it is close to it. He and teammate Billy Smith shared the Jennings Trophy awarded to the goalies on the team with the best goals-against average when they managed a 2.83 record in 1982-83 for the Islanders. Rollie was chosen on the second all-star team that same season when his personal goals-against average was a splendid 2.66.

Notes — Played junior hockey in Oshawa, Ont., where he shared the role with Greg Stefan, now of Detroit . . . Nickname is Rollie the Goalie . . . Was chosen rookie of the year in the CHL in 1980-81 . . . He and his wife Janice have one son, Matthew . . . Is French by extraction, but speaks English with hardly a trace of an accent . . . Enjoys tennis, racquetball and boating. Played second base for the North Stars in the Molson NHL slo-pitch tournament last summer in Niagara Falls.

Obtained — From the Islanders Nov. 19, 1984 for Minnesota's first choice in 1984 Entry Draft.

Kent Nilsson

Center/Right Wing

Height: 6-1 —
Weight: 195 lbs.
183 cm. — 89 kg.
Age: 29
(Aug. 31, 1956)

Born:
Nynashamn, Sweden
Off-Season Home:
Osmo, Sweden
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1984-85 — Just another routine season for Kent Nilsson, the magical playmaker acquired by the North Stars from Calgary in June. Routine, that is, for Nilsson. Splendid for most other mortals. He rang up 37 goals and 62 assists for 99 points in 77 games. That's 37 more points than any Minnesota player scored in the same season. In fact, he recorded as many assists as the leading North Star piled up in points. Nilsson finished 17th overall in NHL scoring. His totals included nine power-play goals and three shorthanded scores. Before the regular season started, he performed with considerable distinction for Sweden in the Canada Cup, winning Most valuable Player honors for his country's team.

His Game — While Nilsson has scored a ton of goals — 229 in the NHL and 81 in the WHA — it is as a playmaker that he truly shines. He won the nickname of Magic for good reason. The passes he deals to his teammates often appear magical. He is most effective on the power play where he quarterbacked the Flames' attack. Nilsson is gifted with terrific speed in both directions, has excellent puck sense and a heavy slapshot.

Career — He played for AIK in Sweden's Elite Division, then burst upon the North American scene when he won WHA rookie of the year honors in 1977-78. Nilsson was taken by Atlanta when the NHL and WHA merged and tied a team record by leading the Flames in scoring in five of the six years he played for them. The one year he failed to top the point list was 1981-82 when he was able to play only 41 games.

Notes — Married, Kent's wife is named Berit . . . They spend the off-season in Sweden where he enjoys the time he spends on the golf course . . . Holds the Flames' record for career points (562), goals (229) and is second in assists (333) . . . Scored five points on a goal and four assists when Sweden eliminated the United States, 9-2, in in the 1984 Canada Cup competition . . . Played for an Avco Cup winning team at Winnipeg in 1977-78

Obtained — From Calgary June 15, 1985 with a third-round Entry Draft choice in either 1986 or 1987 for the North Stars' second round Entry Draft choices in the 1985 and 1987 drafts.

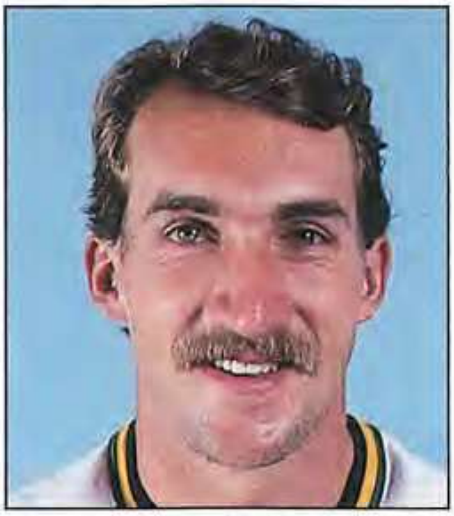
44 Steve Payne

Left Wing



Height: 6-2 —
Weight: 215 lbs.
185 cm. — 98 kg.
Age: 27
(Aug. 16, 1958)

Born: Toronto, Ont.
Off-Season Home:
Apple Valley, Minn.
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1984-85 — For only the second time in six seasons Steve Payne failed to score 30 goals in a season. But you can't come closer than he did. The well-proportioned left winger finished with 29 goals, one short of the benchmark. He led the team with five multiple-goal games, all of them two-goal contests. Payne also maintained his record as one of the more durable North Stars, missing only four games.

His Game — Payne's style has not changed significantly since he came to Minnesota in 1978. He uses his size and strength to gain a favorable position in front of the net or in the slot and scores the majority of his goals from short range on deflections and rebounds. His goals often come in bunches. He had at least one hat trick in each of his first five professional seasons but did not manage to score one last season, leaving his total at six. He is a strong skater, one the opposition has a hard time knocking off the puck.

Career — He has scored more career goals (215) and single-season goals (42) than any left wing in the North Stars' history. He now ranks second on the team's all-time goal scoring list behind Bill Goldsworthy. He stands fourth in all-time points at 440 and fifth in assists at 225. Payne has been consistent and durable during his six seasons in the NHL. He never has missed more than six games in a season.

Notes — Is an avid drag racing fan and during the off-season can often be found at Brainerd International Raceways in northern Minnesota . . . Would someday like to drive a funny car . . . Steve and his wife, Donna, have one son, Ryan . . . Likes to golf and fish . . . Also enjoys hunting and has two dogs, a brittany and a lab . . . Played junior hockey in Ottawa . . . Has scored 35 playoff goals, most ever by a North Star . . . Played in the 1980 and 1985 NHL All-Star games.

Obtained — Minnesota's second choice (19th overall) in 1978 Entry Draft.

24 Willi Plett

Right Wing

Height: 6-3 —
Weight: 211 lbs.
191 cm. — 99 kg.
Age: 30
(June 7, 1955)

Born: Paraguary, South America
Off-Season Home: Marietta, Ga.

1984-85 — When the playoffs arrive, Willi Plett illuminates the ice. The muscular right wing recorded still another splendid post-season performance in 1985. He finished third among the team's scorers with nine points. Even more important, he established himself as a physical presence every time he took the ice. During the regular season Plett, like so many of his teammates, fell prey to injuries. He missed the first 15 games of the season with a dislocated shoulder. Late in the season a severe groin pull kept him out of action for 17 games.

His Game — Plett takes full advantage of his size and strength. He is able to park himself in front of the goal and fend off attempts to move his 211 pounds from that position. He is able to screen the opposing goaltender and lay the groundwork for deflections and tip-ins by himself, and also for goals by teammates that the goalie is unable to see until the last split second. Willi also is capable of controlling play along the boards and in back of the net.

Career — Plett was a late bloomer in junior hockey and was not drafted until the fifth round in 1975. But one year in the minor leagues gave him all the seasoning he needed. By 1976-77 he progressed to the point that he won NHL rookie of the year honors at Atlanta.

Notes — Willie and his wife, Robin, are the parents of three sons, Bryan, Robbie and Blair . . . Born in South America, he moved to Canada with his family at an early age. His parents migrated to Paraguay after World War II from the USSR . . . Has lived in Atlanta in the off-season since he played there for the Flames . . . Likes golf and wood-working . . . Set a team record of 316 penalty minutes two seasons ago.

Obtained — From Calgary on June 7, 1982, with Calgary's fourth choice in 1982 Entry Draft for Steve Christoff, Bill Nyrop and Minnesota's second choice in 1982 Entry Draft.

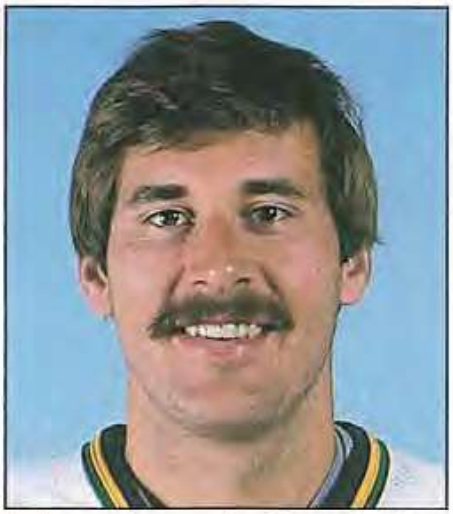
29 Dave Richter

Defense



Height: 6-4 —
Weight: 215 lbs.
193 cm. — 98 kg.
Age: 25
(April 8, 1960)

Born: Winnipeg, Man.
Off-Season Home:
Bloomington, Minn.
Left Handed,
Shoots Right

1984-85 — Dave Richter ranked second among the North Stars in penalty minutes with 221. The leader, Harold Snepsts had 232. But Snepsts played 71 games to Richter's 55. You don't need a pocket calculator to figure out who amassed the most penalty minutes per game. Those statistics say a lot about Richter's role with the North Stars. There are other hard hitters on the roster, but he is the main deterrent in the team's arsenal. The other side of the coin is his steadily-increasing skill and confidence in playing his position. He was at his most effective when the North Stars were killing penalties. His plus-3 record was one of the better ones among the North Stars last season.

His Game — When you are Richter's size — he is the largest North Star — you can use your bulk and its accompanying strength to the best advantage. He is a force around the net and controls play along the boards. He plays a stay at home game, a style that finds him spending most of his time concentrating on the defensive aspects of the position.

Career — He spent his college career at the University of Michigan where he was one of the bulwarks of the Wolverines' defense. Richter chose to sign a professional contract after he completed his college eligibility in 1982. He saw action for the North Stars and their Nashville, Tenn., farm team for a few games at the conclusion of that season, then spent most of 1982-83 at Birmingham, Ala., where he performed for the Central League club in that city. He divided the next season between the North Stars and Salt Lake of the CHL.

Notes — Richter earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Education at Michigan . . . Wears contact lenses on the ice . . . Is single . . . Scored his first NHL goal Dec. 4, 1983 in Madison Square Garden on a backhander from the blue line . . . Was sidelined last season on different occasions with a bruised hand and a stiff neck . . . Played first base for the North Stars in the Molson NHL slo-pitch tournament last summer in Niagara Falls.

Obtained — Minnesota's 10th choice (205th overall) in the 1980 Entry Draft.

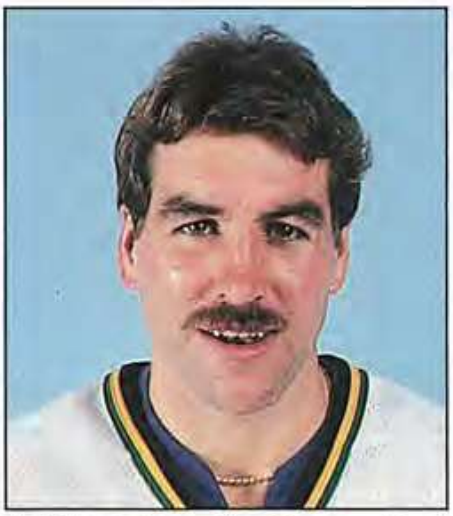
10 Gordie Roberts

Defense



Height: 6-0 —
Weight: 193 lbs.
180 cm. — 87 kg.
Age: 28
(Oct. 2, 1957)

Born: Detroit, Mich.
Off-Season Home: Bloomington, Minn.

1984-85 — It was up to Gordie Roberts to pick up the slack last year when the North Stars saw their offensive output by defensemen suffer in the absence of Craig Hartsburg and Brad Maxwell. Roberts didn't have the best statistics of his NHL career — those occurred when he scored 53 points in 1983-84 — but he finished well ahead of all other Minnesota blueliners with 42 points on six goals and 36 assists. Roberts played in all but two games last year.

His Game — Roberts' game has matured along with him. He has become a steady, sound force on the blue line, capable of end-to-end rushes. By and large he stays at home and does the chores that make him an effective defenseman. He is a tough competitor who thrives on ice time and consistently sticks up for his teammates.

Career — Gordie was signed at the age of 18 by the World Hockey Association's New England team. He played with the Whalers for five and half seasons before he was traded to Minnesota. He led all WHA defensemen in scoring in back-to-back seasons, 1977-78 and 1978-79.

Notes — Named after Gordie Howe, he assisted on the final regular-season goal ever scored by the legendary performer . . . Enjoys tennis and biking . . . Gordie is the North Stars' player representative . . . Played for the United States in the last two Canada Cup series . . Gordie's wife, Marlo, has a degree in political science from the University of Hartford and studied interior design at the University of Minnesota . . . She and Gordie have one daughter, Dana . . . Gordie embarked on a sales career last summer, retailing mobile telephones .

Obtained — From Hartford Dec. 16, 1980 for Mike Fidler.

1984-85 — The most pleasant surprise for the North Stars during all of last season was defenseman Bob Rouse. Most people felt Rouse was destined to play his first professional season for Minnesota's Springfield farm team in the AHL. Rouse proved them wrong. He not only played nearly the entire season for the North Stars, but also was chosen by his teammates as winner of the W*USA-TV Trophy awarded to the club's most-proficient rookie.

His Game — By and large Rouse is a defensively-oriented defenseman. That's not to say that he doesn't make the occasional offensive foray, but his emphasis is on the play in his end of the rink. He is physically powerful and can play a strong hitting game.

Career — Born and raised in the Canadian West, Rouse played all of his junior career in the Western League, performing for clubs in Billings, Mont.; Nanaimo, B.C., and Lethbridge, Alta.

Notes — His defensive partner at Billings was the Bruins' Gord Kluzak, No. 1 overall draft selection in 1982 . . . Rouse is single . . . Scored his first NHL goal against Philadelphia on Oct. 23, 1984 . . . Played one game for the North Stars in 1983-84 when he still was a junior at Lethbridge . . . Played for the North Stars in the Molson NHL slo-pitch tournament last summer in Niagara Falls.

Obtained — Minnesota's fourth choice (80th overall) in 1982 Entry Draft.

1984-85 — Gord Sherven got off to a fast and, for him, a somewhat uncharacteristic scoring start with Edmonton last season. His production tailed off before he was dealt to Minnesota in January. He started slowly in Minnesota, saw limited action but seemed to improve as he played more and gained confidence in his new surroundings.

His Game — He was noticed for his skating ability and his tenacity on defense with the Canadian Olympic team and at North Dakota University. That's not to say that he isn't effective on offense. That same talent for skating earns him lots of opportunities around the net. He likes to play aggressively but doesn't get many penalties.

Career — He was brought to the heights, plunged to the depths and lifted to the heights again in 1984. He was named to Canada's Olympic team, then selected as his country's captain. But a knee injury on the eve of the competition ended his Olympic hopes. He signed with Edmonton after the Sarjevo Games. He was just in time to play a couple regular-season games, then observe the Oilers win the Stanley Cup.

Notes — Played two seasons for the Fighting Sioux of North Dakota . . . Attends summer school at North Dakota where he is studying education . . . Travelled to Greece last summer . . . Sherven is single . . . Played high school hockey at Notre Dame College in Wilcox, Sask . . . Chosen by Edmonton in the 10th round of the 1981 Entry Draft.

1984-85 — Randy Velischek has to look back at 1984-85 with a great deal of satisfaction. It was last season that saw him redeemed as a National Hockey League defenseman. After a rookie season when he shuttled back and forth between the North Stars and the minors, he had a point to make. He made that point, but only after an uncertain start. Shipped to Springfield of the AHL early in the year, he didn't come back to Minnesota until 30 games into the season. But that return was permanent. He played regularly the balance of the season and during the playoffs. His performance was so impressive that the journalists who cover the team voted him the club's most-improved player.

His Game — He is a defensive defenseman, one who stays home and minds the store. His reactions are quick. He does not hang on to the puck when he acquires it in his zone. Instead he will usually make a swift pass to start the flow moving toward the other end. Randy has a good shot, one that accounted for four goals in his 52 regular-season games and two more in the playoffs.

Career — Velischek's credentials in Junior B hockey impressed the North Stars enough so that the team made him its third-round draft choice in 1980. He chose to attend Providence where he played four years of varsity hockey and made steady progress in each of those seasons. He was a candidate for the Hobey Baker Trophy in his senior season at Providence.

Notes — Was graduated magna cum laude from Providence . . . Was chosen winner of the 1983 Rev. Raymond St. George Award for academic achievement in language studies . . . Maintained a 4.0 grade-point average at Providence . . . Is fluent in three languages: French, German and English . . . Had a double major in languages and business . . . Randy is single . . . Signed a four-year contract with Minnesota.

Obtained — Minnesota's third choice (53rd overall) in the 1980 Entry Draft.

NORTH STARS' TRAINERS

Change made an appearance on the North Stars' training scene in 1985. Not at the top where Dick (Doc) Rose returns for his 16th season in the Minnesota dressing room, but at the next level where two full-time employees have been added in the persons of assistant trainer Dave Smith and equipment assistant Mark Baribeau.

Rose, 47, is a native of St. Paul who joined the North Stars in 1969 after gaining experience with the United States Olympic team and the South St. Paul Steers of the United States League. A bachelor, Rose spends much of the off-season on the North Shore of Lake Superior near Lutsen, Minn.

Smith, 42, joins the North Stars after eight seasons with the St. Louis Blues. He worked with the World Hockey Association team in Cleveland for four seasons and in the International and Ontario leagues. The native of Toronto is married. He and his wife Maxine and their son make their home in Eagan.

The 22-year-old Baribeau has been Rose's part-time assistant for the last four seasons. The native and resident of Richfield is single.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Space in the Met Center pressbox is limited to those reporters and broadcasters covering the game.

Season press passes are issued to reporters and broadcasters who regularly cover the team. Single-game passes are available upon request to Dick Dillman, Hockey Information Director, Minnesota North Stars, Met Center, 7901 Cedar Ave. South, Bloomington, Minn. 55420, 612-853-9377.

Single-game parking passes are extremely limited and should be requested well in advance of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers from television stations, accredited daily newspapers and major wire services may shoot from behind the goals, from the pressbox, from the concourse level and from the following seat locations:

D-A-1, J-A-1, K-A-3 and 4, R-A-1, V-A-8 and X-A-7.

RADIO AND TELEVISION

Visiting television facilities are located on the south side of Met Center. The visiting radio position is on the north side. Requests for telephone circuits should be made directly to Northwestern Bell.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

The North Stars' pressbox provides these services:

1. Press box announcing service.
2. Pre-game information and statistics and summaries at the completion of each period and at the conclusion of the game.
3. Closed circuit television pickup when the game is being televised and videotape pickup when the game is not televised.
4. A meal before each game in the Center Club and refreshments in the Center Club between periods and after the game.
5. Soft drinks for broadcst crews working in the radio-television area.
6. Reports on injuries, calls by officials and other situations that take place on the ice.
7. Transportation arrangements for journalists faced with tight schedules.
8. Reports on scores of games in other cities.
